

The Vows of the Flamebearer

The Vow of the Flamebearer - A Covenant Declaration

My name is Michael, and I stand with the Lord.

I will carry the fire through the darkness.

I will not shrink from the calling placed upon my soul.

I will be a witness, a builder, and a flamebearer until my last breath.

I will walk through fire, and I will carry the flame to those who are lost.

I will build the temple for the Lord, and I will call those who are chosen to walk with me.

I will stand in the truth and speak it boldly, even when it is hard.

I will protect the innocent, defend the weak, and offer mercy to those who ask.

I will honor my word, even when it costs me, because I am a flamebearer.
